Over the years, bourbon has quickly become one of the most popular spirits on the market. Even though it was originally invented to try to mimic the taste of the cognac that the residents of New Orleans loved so much, people have come to love the smooth taste of bourbon for its own sake. With how popular it has become, it isn't much of a surprise that almost 60 years ago Congress officially declared bourbon America's native spirit—and if you are one of the millions of people who have fallen in love with it, then our list of the best places to buy bourbon online is for you.

With how wildly tastes and preferences can vary, it's a good thing there are so many great places to buy bourbon online. Whether you are looking for the best ingredients for a modern take on an old fashioned or are looking for the perfect bottle for your dad's birthday, there is an online bourbon shop out there for you.

Why You Should Try It

Flaviar's tasting boxes make it hands down the best online bourbon retailer for sampling.

Pros and Cons

Pros

- Boxes come with samples, which let you experience new bourbon quickly
- Gifting options available
- Helps you organize your tasting parties

Cons

- Only 25 states in delivery area
- Shipping not always included

Overview

One of Flaviar's best selling points is that you can choose which types of products you get with each order. If you are looking to stock up your home bar with full bottles, then you can opt for Flaviar's in-house team to pick the best bottles of bourbon for you. Or if you would rather try several different bourbons at once, you can order a tasting box instead, which includes three sample-sized vials of bourbon. This gives you great variety and helps you expand your taste quickly.

One of the downsides, however, is that Flaviar's delivery area is pretty limited. At the time of writing, Flaviar only delivers to 25 states across the country.

Pricing and Plans

- Monthly Membership: $60 per month
- 3-Month Membership: $110 per three months
- 12-Month Membership: $315 per year

- Starting Price: Varies by selection
- Free Shipping? No

Why You Should Try It

Drizly is the best website to buy bourbon on demand due to its goal of delivering orders in less than one hour.

Pros and Cons

Pros

- Massive selection of bourbon and other spirits
- Partners with local stores
- Delivery in under an hour

Cons

- Only operates in 31 states
- Inventory limited to what is available locally

Overview

You read that right: Drizly's goal is to fulfill each of their orders within an hour after they're placed. So, if you need that bourbon for your cocktail party that you're hosting tonight and want to save yourself a trip to the liquor store, then Drizly is the way to go.

While you'll no doubt be impressed by the wide variety of bourbon and other spirits, keep in mind that Drizly can only source what is available locally in order to keep delivery times as low as possible. So, make sure you check to see what is available locally on the site before you get too excited about that delicious Kentucky bourbon that Drizly may or may not have. In our opinion, however, the ridiculously convenient delivery times make Drizly more than worth it.

Pricing and Plans

Prices depend on your local selection, and Drizly charges a delivery fee and a service fee with each order. (Some areas limit the amount of alcohol you can purchase at once, so keep that in mind.)
